

What kind of dog
goes "wool walking"?

WILLIAM HENRY BAGLEY

William Bagley married Hannah Barnes when she was 16 years old. She had come to Utah in 1853. They first lived in Charleston, then moved to the Fort Spring in Midway, returning to Charleston again when the Indian scare subsided.

Mr. Bagley was a guard at the Fort. He helped to pioneer Provo valley. Hannah helped by herding sheep. She took wool on shares to spin and make into clothing for her husband and children.

Both she and her husband rendered real service to the early pioneers of Wasatch giving help and comfort in sickness and distress. They gave of their time and talents without restraint.
